Approvals relating to restructuring transactions

Proceeding 27802 Corix Utilities Inc.

The Alberta Utilities Commission, the independent utilities regulator, will be considering an application from Corix Utilities Inc., pursuant to sections 101 and 102 of the Public Utilities Act, for approvals related to restructuring transactions, to ensure that the delivery of Alberta's utility service takes place in a manner that is fair, responsible and in the public interest. If you feel you may be affected by this application, you can provide input to the AUC to review before it makes its decision.

Corix Utilities (Foothills Water) Inc. is a water utility located at Heritage Pointe, Alberta, and is owned by Corix Utilities Inc. Corix Utilities Inc. has filed an application requesting that the AUC authorize the company: (1) to issue its own shares and/or evidence of indebtedness; and (2) to record on its books a transfer of all its shares to a corporation to be formed under the laws of a Canadian jurisdiction. These transactions are being made in connection with a business combination involving the parent company of Corix Utilities Inc. Corix Utilities Inc. submitted that the restructuring transactions will not change the day-to-day operations of Corix Utilities (Foothills Water) Inc., nor will it have any immediate impact on the rates paid by customers of Corix Utilities (Foothills Water) Inc.

Written submissions are due December 9, 2022.

To register your concerns, or your support for the application, please visit the AUC website and log in to the eFiling System to file your submission for Proceeding 27802. If you do not have access to the internet, send your name, address, phone number, organization you are representing, description of your interest in the proceeding, position including information in support of the position and reasons why the AUC should decide in the manner recommended, and whether further process is required. If no written submissions are received, the Commission may make its decision without further notice or process.
