To: UBC Neighbourhood District Energy System Customers

Potential Temporary Service Disruption

Please note that routine maintenance on the energy transfer stations (ETS) connected to the UBC Neighbourhood District Energy System (UBC NDES) has been scheduled for Friday, December 29, 2017, between the hours of 9:00 am and 1:00 pm. During this time, customers of the NDES system may experience temporary disruption or reduction to their domestic hot water and space heating service.

Please forward any related inquiries or concerns to energy.utilities@corix.com.

Sincerely,

Hang Dao
Operations Supervisor, Energy Services
